Subject: Regarding Designation of One room for "Democracy Room".
Madam/Sir,

This is in reference to the subject cited above concerning the preparations for voter awareness initiatives for the upcoming Lok Sabha Election 2024, scheduled for 1st June 2024, in our District Una (H.P). As we are well aware about, ensuring maximum voter participation is crucial for upholding the democratic process. In alignment with this fundamental objective, it is imperative to undertake proactive measures to educate and engage citizens especially the First time Voters and Women in the electoral process. In this context, we hereby direct the designation of One Room as the "Democracy Room" in every Senior Secondary School, College, and in ITIs across our district. These designated rooms will serve as focal points for disseminating voter awareness material and conducting Continuous Electoral and Democracy Education (CEDE) activities in the lead-up to the elections.

The following actions are to be implemented:

1. Designation of One Room as the "Democracy Room" in every Senior Secondary School, College, and in ITIs.
2. Regular display of voter awareness material in the designated rooms.
3. Conducting continuous Electoral and Democracy Education (CEDE) activities around this period to educate students and citizens about the electoral process, voting rights, and the significance of participation in democratic governance.

This is for your information and further necessary actions.
