Regarding celebration of constitution Day every year on 26th November;

Memo

As the part of the 125th Birth Anniversary of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar celebrations, the first Constitution Day was celebrated on 26th November, 2015 for the first time. The Government of India has decided that the 'Constitution Day' would be celebrated every year. As part of the celebration, it is requested that 'Preamble' to the Constitution (as it exists today) may be read out in all the Government offices and educational institutions under your control on the second 'Constitution Day' i.e. 26th November, 2016. Apart from reading out of the 'Preamble', celebration of 'Constitution Day' may include other activities like organizing mock Parliament, Essay/Debate competitions and lectures etc. It is further requested to identify more activities at the State level to celebrate the 'Constitution Day' this year in order to create/increase the awareness among people about the Constitution of India.
