Untouchability, Discrimination and Exclusion against children in the educational system is widespread. Social exclusion, alienation, physical abuse, mental harassment, sexual abuse and educational neglect are some of its forms. Rather than inculcating human rights and Constitutional values, schools by and large perpetrate social norms and values that are often exclusionary, discriminatory and hierarchical. Victim children in conversations allude to, fear of school, not participating, not coping up in learning, feeling isolated, feeling neglected. The RTE Act, 2009 mandates non-discrimination in education and the issue has gained some recognition in recent years.

PeCamSEE is working since 2007 to facilitating the process of, Untouchability - Atrocity - Violence - Discrimination and Exclusion free Society, Equitable Rights and Ownership and Fare Share with dignity for Equity based People's centered Sustainable and Inclusive Development.
