Subject: - Provision of one trained lady guard/attendant in school bus.

Memo,

On the subject cited above, it is submitted that the Quarterly review meeting of District Child Welfare and Protection committee was held on dated 04.01.2023 under the chairmanship of Worthy Additional Deputy Commissioner Una District Una (HP).

During the meeting, instructions were given that in every school bus there should be one trained lady guard/attendant, who will take care the students travelling in the bus and ensure their safety during the journey. She will also help in boarding and de-boarding of the students.

In this context, the school management shall ensure the provision of at least one lady guard/attendant in each school bus and submit an affidavit in this regard to this office immediately.
