Director

PS(D)/6-1/2017-18
August 10, 2017

Dear Shri Prasad,

The NCERT brings out textbooks for all subjects for classes I to XII in Hindi, English and Urdu. These textbooks are based on the National Curriculum Framework, 2005 and follow the principle of constructivist pedagogy. The textbooks are developed following a rigorous academic exercise. Recently, NCERT has invited comments/suggestions from various stakeholders and is in the process of incorporating the suggestions in the textbooks. The CBSE affiliated schools including Kendriya Vidyalayas, Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalayas, and some government as well as private schools prescribe these textbooks. A number of States/Union Territories have already obtained copyright permission for printing and using these textbooks in their States/Union Territories after suitable adaptation.

The NCERT is making efforts to widen its network for distributing the textbooks through its outlets and also by engaging a large number of vendors spread in different parts of the country. A web portal (www.ncertbooks.ncert.gov.in) has been developed where the concerned schools and vendors can register their requirements and arrangements will be made to supply the books to them. Arrangements may also be made to supply books to such group of schools who show their interest in procuring books directly from NCERT. These groups of schools will be allowed a discount @20% on their bulk purchase. This will enable a hassle-free access to NCERT textbooks.

I am writing this letter to suggest that your State/Union Territory may prescribe the books published by NCERT for the schools. The books can be obtained through the web portal. This will enable all children to have quality learning materials at an affordable cost.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

Hrushikesh Senapaty
