Name of cluster:

S.NO	Name of center for remedial teaching	CLUSTER Name	No of students enrolled for remedial teaching	Avg.no of students present	No of students present in Base line	Average percentage score *
						Base line			E nd line
						Math	English	Science	Math	English	Science

*Average Percentage Score = (Total Score of all students / No. of students X Max . marks) x100

For example = let us suppose there are three students in class . in mathematics their individual scores are 30,36,38 out of max. Marks 50 . then average score will be =

It is certified that above information given is true. These schools conduct remedial teaching as per the norms. please release an amount ofat the rate of Rs 6250 per schools/center forschools/centers.
