OFFICE ORDER

Keeping in view the COVID -19 situation during the academic session 2020-21 and non conduct of classes in Physical mode , it has been decided to promote the students of all classes except the students of 10th and 12th classes (Board classes) who have taken their exams in the month of March 2021. The students who could not take their examination due to COVID reasons will be given time to sit in the examinations within next two months . Decision in this regard will be taken at DDHE/Head of Institution level and internal examination be conducted at the level of Institution within two months . The result of those students who fail to appear in the examination even within next two months , will not be declared.

Remedial and revision classes especially for students who fared very poorly in the annual examinations will be conducted at institution /school level for two month after the admissions so as to improve their academic standards.

All concerned to note for compliance.
