File No.-1601/31/2022/Child Labour/NCPCR/248737

Date: 25.05.2022

To

The Chairpersons, State Commission for Protection of Child Rights (SCPCR)
(As per the list attached)

Subject: Celebration of Elimination of Child Labour Week during 12th -20th June, 2022

Madam/Sir,

National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) has been constituted by the Government of India, as a statutory body under section 3 of the Commissions for Protection of Child Rights (CPCR) Act, 2005 (No. 4 of 2006) for dealing with the protection of child rights and related matters. Under section 13(1) of the Commissions for Protection of Child Rights (CPCR) Act, 2005, has provided certain functions to ensure that the rights of children are protected especially the most vulnerable and marginalized. In addition, the Commission has also been mandated to monitor the implementation of the Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of Children) Act, 2015, Right of Children to Free & Compulsory Education (RTE) Act, 2009 and Prevention of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012.

2. The Commission deals with the cases of complaints relating to child labour and it has been observed that the children who already have faced multiple deprivations are compelled to suffer further more due to different reasons. In this regards, it is pertinent to aware different stakeholders on child labour on various provisions and sections provided under multiple Acts such as - The Child & Adolescent Prohibition & Regulation] Act, 1986 as amended in 2016 , Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of Children) act, 2015, The Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, 1976, Right of Children to Free & Compulsory Education Act, 2009.

3. Keeping in view, the challenges faced by the children involve in labour work, NCPCR is celebrating Elimination of Child Labour Week in the honour of World Day Against Child Labour in the 75 places as part of the "75th anniversary celebrations of India's independence - "Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav" in different districts starting from 12th -20th June, 2022 as a significance to pay attention to the problem of child labour and to find ways to eradicate it. This awareness celebration provides an occasion for unified commitment and action to address the issue through convergent action by all the authorities, departments, and stakeholders.

In this regard, it is requested to ensure the participations of District authorities or stakeholders such as (SDM/ADM, CWC, Labour Inspector, DCPO, DPO, SJPU, Childline, DLSA, Task force Officers, volunteers from NCC/NSS etc) for the activities that shall be taken up during the Elimination of Child Labour Week from 12th -20th June, 2022 in the different cities/ places.

5. You are also requested to attend a Virtual Meeting that shall be conducted by NCPCR with the various departments/ stakeholders on 7th & 8th June 2022, to discuss upon the activities to be taken during the Elimination of Child Labour Week. The links and schedules meeting shall be shared soon.

Yours Sincerely,

(Rupali Banerjee Singh)
